TO FACILITATE IS TO MAKE EASIER

Hi! My name is Maggie Kolk.

I love to travel. In this photo I am in England at Stonehenge. Visiting new places and having new adventures makes me very happy. You could say I am brave and curious.

I work as an advocate at The Arc Kent County and part of my job is to facilitate person centered plans. I have a legal background and understand rules and laws. I make a very good investigator because I listen to what you want and try to figure out ways to get there. My favorite part of planning with you is getting to know you!

I have facilitated many plans in my life. I have also raised six children and today I have five grandchildren. If you'd like me to assist you please contact me at 616-588-1985 or by email Maggie@arckent.org.
